

Reaching Individual Success Thru Empowerment

Board of Directors

Amy R. Glenn — Board President

Amy R. Glenn is a passionate community leader, educator, and advocate for youth empowerment. She currently serves as a Job Pilot for Dale County Youth Enrichment Services and is a District 5 Board Member for Barbour County Schools. With a background in tax analysis and accounting, Amy blends financial acumen with a heartfelt commitment to service. Her leadership is grounded in faith, education, and equity, making her a vital voice in shaping opportunities for the next generation.

Betty Hand Dickens — Vice President

Betty Dickens brings over four decades of ministry, education, and youth leadership to the board. A retired educator, author, and founder of BRILLIANCE Magazine, Betty has created award-winning youth programs, opened multiple educational facilities in Alabama, and serves as a licensed minister and inspirational speaker. Her life's work focuses on helping others discover their divine purpose through mentorship, faith-based education, and leadership training. Recognized as a "Legend of the Wiregrass," Betty leads with wisdom, compassion, and a legacy of impact.

Brittany Daffin-Bonner — Treasurer

With nearly two decades of experience in customer service, finance, and utility management, Brittany Bonner is a reliable force in fiscal oversight. A proud military spouse and devoted mother of three, she balances professional excellence with deep community involvement. Known as a faith-driven “ball mama” who does her best to never miss a game, Brittany brings unwavering commitment and a nurturing spirit to the R.I.S.E. team. Her strong foundation in accounting and financial operations ensure responsible stewardship of the organization’s resources.
